THE EMOTIONAL HOOK

Headline:

One day, you won't be able to ask them anymore.

Body Copy:

There are stories inside your grandparents — about the life they lived before you were born, the hardships they overcame, the love that carried them through. Stories they've never fully told. And one day, quietly, those stories will be gone.

Peak Studios CO exists for one reason: to make sure that doesn't happen.

We come to your family with a professional two-camera setup, a warm and unhurried interview style, and questions designed to draw out the whole story — the funny moments, the hard ones, the ones that shaped who they are. Then we craft it all into a beautiful film your family will return to again and again.

This is not a home video. This is a legacy.

ABOUT PEAK STUDIOS CO

Headline:

We believe every life is worth preserving.

Body Copy:

At Peak Studios CO, we've spent years telling stories through the lens — and we know better than most how powerful a well-crafted film can be. Legacy video is a natural extension of that belief: that the most important stories aren't always the loudest ones, and that the people we love most deserve to have their story told with the same care and craft we bring to everything we do.

We are based in Victoria and Vancouver, BC, and we approach every legacy session with professionalism, patience, and genuine heart. For us, this is some of the most meaningful work we do.

FAQ CopyQ: Where do you film?

A: We come to you — your loved one's home, a family member's home, or another comfortable location of your choosing in the Victoria or Vancouver area.

Q: How long does the session take?

A: The interview itself is typically 60-90 minutes. We arrive early to set up and stay a little after to pack down — the whole visit is usually around 2-3 hours.

Q: What if my loved one is nervous or shy?

A: This is very common, and it's something we're experienced with. Our interviewers are warm, patient, and skilled at putting people at ease. Most subjects forget the cameras are there within the first few minutes.

Q: How long until we receive the film?

A: You'll receive your completed legacy film within 3-4 weeks of your session.

Q: Can we add more people to the interview?

A: The session is designed around one primary subject, but we can discuss accommodating a couple or adding a short segment with a family member. Just ask us.

Q: Do you travel outside Victoria and Vancouver?

A: We occasionally travel for sessions. Reach out and we can discuss options.
